

Bernd Krekeler

Vice President, Federal Logistics and Mobility Office

born on 29 May 1958 in Lüdenscheid, married, father of four

Career Progression

1990 to present day	Federal Logistics and Mobility Office
since 20 October 2022	Vice President of the Federal Logistics and Mobility Office
Since September 2018	Head of Inspection Services Department
June 2017 – September 2018	Head of Roadside Inspection Service Division
October 2007 – September 2018	Head of the Münster branch office
January 2007	Head of Offence Procedures Division
January 2005 – January 2007	Head of Internal Services Division
January – December 2003	Additional duties as assistant head of Market Access Procedures Division/Head office Appointment to Deputy Head of Division
January 2003	Head of the Roadside Inspection functional area at the Münster branch office
June 1996 – January 2003	Head of Regulatory Procedures at the Münster branch office and additionally head of the same functional area at the Düsseldorf extension until its dissolution (1997)
October 1995	Additional appointment as legal desk officer at the Rheinland branch office in Düsseldorf
May 1995	Additional appointment as legal desk officer at the Lower Saxony branch office in Hannover and the Bremen branch office.

October 1991	Legal desk officer at the Westfalen–Lippe branch office
October 1991	Transfer to the Westfalen–Lippe branch office in Münster
March 1990 – October 1991	Junior legal staff in the higher–level public service at the Federal Office for Goods Transport

Education and training

1980 – 1985	Studied at the Westfälische–Wilhelms–Universtät in Münster, 1st State Examination in law
1985 – 1988	Postgraduate legal training at the Land North Rhine–Westphalia, 2nd State Examination in law